

BASEBALL DRAMA, PITCHER AS HERO, SEEN THIS WEEK

"Matty" Helped to Write "The Girl and the Pennant" for the Lyric Theatre.

ANOTHER NEW PLAY.

"The Love Leash" at the Harris—Forbes-Robertson in "Antony and Cleopatra."

"THE Girl and the Pennant" a baseball play written by Rida Johnson Young with the assistance of Christy Matheson, the star pitcher of the Giants, will be produced at the Lyric Theatre on Thursday night. In the play there is a star pitcher who is induced to go to a wine party the night before the game upon which the winning of the pennant depends. The team that relies upon him is owned by a young woman who has her hands full defeating the schemes of the rival manager. One scene is devoted to the all-important game, with yells from the fans adding to the excitement. William Courtenay will be the pitcher and Florence Reed the girl who is out for the pennant. The cast will also include Tully Marshall, Calvin Thomas, Malcolm Williams, William Roselle, Lola Fisher, Marian Ballou, Ethel Stannard and Florence Deshon.

At the Harris Theatre this evening "The Love Leash," a comedy by Anna Steese Richardson and Edmund Burns, will be offered. A man who has been married for ten years is surprised with affection and he expresses his discontentment with life to the family lawyer. This discussion is overheard by the wife, who protests that she too has been concealing her feelings and that she is bored with her husband. They agree upon a trial divorce for a year, and she decides to occupy her time by becoming the patron of a struggling musician, while he expects to find interest in an attractive novelist ready to indulge in a flirtation with the hope of finding copy for her next "best seller." In the cast will be Grace Filkin, Ann Meredith, Isabel Richards, Maude Granger, Elliott Dexter, Paul Kerr, Henry Stevenson, Bernard Fairfax and Lawrence Knapp.

Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra" will be revived by Forbes-Robertson at the Shubert Theatre this evening. Gertrude Elliott will again be seen as the girlish Cleopatra. This delightful play is to be given throughout the week.

"Gaiety," a musical play by Eugene W. Harker, of Erasmus Hall High School, was presented on Saturday night in the Great Hall of the College of the City of New York, under the auspices of the New York Latin Club. The performance was in the interest of the Greek scholarship recently established by the club. The opera is based upon Gilbert's "Pygmalion and Galatea."

For their last week at the Manhattan Opera House E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe have arranged this schedule of plays: To-night, "Much Ado About Nothing," Tuesday, "Hamlet," Wednesday matinee, "If I were King," Wednesday night, "Taming of the Shrew," Thursday night, "Macbeth," Friday, "The Merchant of Venice," Saturday matinee, "Much Ado About Nothing," Saturday night, "Romeo and Juliet."

H. R. Warner, in "The Ghost Breaker," comes to the Grand Opera House, and the West End Theatre will have "When Dreams Come True," tonight.

"The Trocadero Burlesques" will be at the Columbia.

"The Beauty Parade" will be seen at the Murray Hill Theatre.

Al Reeves brings his "Beauty Show" to Miner's People's Theatre. At Miner's in the Bronx will be "The Happy Widows."

The Lyceum will have "Follies of Pleasure."

VAUDEVILLE ATTRACTIONS.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin, have a surprise awaiting them because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tea-tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

inn" will be the feature at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. There will also be Eddie Foy and the Seven Little Foys, Harry Kelly and Lee Harrison, Lihoniti and Josephine Dunfee, soprano. The Six Minstrel Kiddies will be the feature at the Twenty-third Street Theatre. Vera Saldaña, danseuse, will be at the Fifty-eighth Street Theatre. Frances Clara in "Jus Kids" will be the main attraction at the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre.

Marcus Loew has opened his latest theatre, the Orpheum, in Third avenue, between Eighty-sixth and Eighty-seventh street, on Saturday night. A number of well-known stars made their appearance unannounced and a big vaudeville bill has been arranged for this week.

IN BROOKLYN—"The Liberty Girls" come to the Empire.

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby" will be seen at the Gayety.

EDNA MAY IN VAUDEVILLE.

Former Star of "Belle of New York" to Return to Stage

Edna May, who in private life is Mrs. Oscar Lewisohn, is to return to the stage next month and will go into vaudeville.

When Miss May gave up the stage to marry she declared that she would never return to the footlights, and Mr. Lewisohn has always denied that his wife would play again.

According to the plans now arranged she will do a turn alone in vaudeville, singing some new songs as well as the "Follow On" song, which made her famous when she played the Salvation Army girl in "The Bells of New York." She will open in New York at the Palace Theatre early in November, and she will be seen in other New York vaudeville houses soon afterward.

Third avenue, were entered, both through the roof. The safe in each place was ripped open with a "can opener" jimmy, but neither contained more than a few dollars. Thieves got into the store of Lonshein & Falick at No. 149 Essex street and opened the inner compartment of a small safe which was not closed. There they got about $10. Apparently the same thieves went next door, to the United Furniture Company at No. 151 Essex street, and devoted a lot of energy to breaking open a six-foot safe. There wasn't a cent in it, but from the drawer in the cashier's desk they got something less than $5. Altogether it was a bad week-end for safe robbers.
